July 2018

Dear Friends, Family, Sponsors, and Patrons,

As The Austin City Ballet proudly presents our 2018-19 performing season, we look back at what we have accomplished and look forward to what we want to achieve. We would like to take this opportunity to thank all of you for your support of our efforts to achieve our mission

“It is our mission to bring theatrical dance to the greater Austin Community in an entertaining and educational arena. To train and educate dancers in all aspects of theatrical performance, from technical preparation, lighting and set design, costuming and choreography. To provide scholarships for aspiring performers to pursue training opportunities.”

Our performance season includes the 18th annual Austin Children’s Nutcracker this December 14-16, 2018 at the brand new Riverside Arts District in downtown Austin. We will be honoring our sponsors at the fifth annual sponsorship show on December 13, 2018 with a wine and hors d’œuvres reception prior to the performance that night.

Our spring season kicks off with our spring productions of “Ballet Classique and other contemporary works” and “Alice in Wonderland” April 5-7, 2019 at the George Washington Carver Theater the 5th annual Performance Project in May 10-11, 2019 at the Dougherty Arts Center Theater.

The Austin City Ballet appreciates and depends on our faithful supporters to ensure that the work of our children and wonderful artists have so lovingly built, continues to thrive. With your support, The Austin City Ballet will continue to provide families with quality entertainment and memories for a lifetime.

The rising cost of studio space and theater space rental has escalated exponentially in the last 7 years and has become a great concern for ACB as we move forward into our performance season. However, through the consummate support of our sponsors and generous donations, our sponsorship drives grant The Austin City Ballet the opportunity to move into its 18th performing season with confidence. All proceeds offset the cost of theatre rental, sets, costumes, lighting, sound equipment, and our director, choreographers and guest artists.

We greatly appreciate your interest and consideration in supporting The Austin City Ballet.

On behalf of the ACB Board,
